“ Bramlett Family & Friends: I'm like the others who wrote in this guestbook... I'm at a loss for words! I had worked with John at Camp Julienna when he started there. I saw the love and dedication he had for deaf children and knew he would be a great asset to the deaf community. I will miss his smiles and laughs. He will be missed greatly. May God continue to provide His comfort and His loving arms around you all at this time and in the future times.##imported-begin##Carla Berghult##imported-end##

“ Our condolences go to the family of John Bramlett. May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss. Joh the bloved one had touched many of our lives that he was a cheerful servant for the Deaf/Hard of hearing campers at Camp Juliena and Camp DOVE with our young daughter Heather 5-year camper and Robin the staff member partipating. JOHN, We thought of you with love today. But that is nothing new. We think of you in silence. We often speak your name. Now all we have is memories, And your picture in a frame. Your memory is our keepsake. With which we'll never part. God has you in His Keeping. We have you in our Hearts.##imported-begin##Robin, Robert and Heather Turner in Buford, Georgia##imported-end##

“ To the Bramlett family: My prayers are with you. I worked with John at Glenn's...he was Dudley to us..he was just a young teen then, and still, the funny and well-loved person that he has always been. We loved him, and had so much fun with him. My life is better for knowing him, as I am sure so many will also tell you. Our hearts break with you, your son & brother, our friend, remembered. God be with you!##imported-begin##Cathy##imported-end##

“ To John's family, the scripture Duet.29:29 says, " Secret things belong to the Lord our God but those things revealed to us belong to us and our children forever. " The Secret things are the things we can't explain but those things revealed to us are our memories. Memories that can be passed on to others. I have wonderful memories of John and I riding to Boy Scout Camp, working at Camp Julienna and our ITP classes. He will be missed by all of those he touched. “ John's Family & Friends - I am so sorry I'm not able to be there to say goodbye in person. I first met John through SLIP @ GPC back in 2001. A few years later I was part of his volunteer staff at Camp Julienna and Camp DOVE. He wrote me an impressive letter of recommendation which is something I will be forever grateful. John, when I think of Deaf camps in Georgia along with GPC I will always think of you.##imported-begin##Jason Dean##imported-end##

“ To the family of John Bramlett - John was an amazing interpreter. I loved watching him work. He breathed life into the words and concepts he expressed with his hands.

But I also remember the first time I read one of John's blogs. As a writer, I was also struck with what a wordsmith he was. He made me laugh. He made me cry. He was one of the deep thinkers among us and I was a fan.

John will be missed but so much of him will carry on in his "kids" and in the words he left behind in our hearts.

May God be with you in this terrible time. And may you find joy once again on the other side of sorrow.##imported-begin##Becky Thurman##imported-end##

“ My heart aches for the huge void that John's spirit will leave behind. The gift John gave so many people was his interpretation of words/voice. I had the privilege of sharing the song, "I Can Only Imagine" with John in one our worship services many years ago. To have seen his interpretation of that song would reassure us all that he is now at "peace". Prayers with/for all the family and friends of John. I'm so lucky our paths crossed.##imported-begin##Lynn Fink##imported-end##

“ To the Bramlett Family, we share in your grief. John was a good friend, and an amazing person. We will miss his smile and his laughter, his unique personality with his "smirks" and his "brow raises". We will miss his wonderful stories. He was so dedicated to Camp Julienna, and the Deaf children he called his own. We will all miss "Papa Bear". The Interpreting Community, and Deaf Community alike were better because of John. Our hearts ache at the thought of how much he will be missed. We offer you our condolences in your time of sorrow. We will always cherish the memories we had with John.##imported-begin##Jimmy and Lisa##imported-end##

“ I have spent the last day trying to think of what to say to John's family and friends. Still, nothing comes. Words seem so inadequate at a time like this.

The impact John had in the lives of many others cannot be described. He was woven into the fabric of the Deaf and interpreting communities, and his family and friends. EVERYONE liked John. We appreciated his gifts, were awed at his dedication, and just enjoyed his presence. The loss cannot be measured.

To his family, thank you for raising such a wonderful person, and thank you for sharing him with us. We share your heartache and celebrate with you the rare, special person he was.

“ John was loved and respected for his work in the community and for the person that he was. He was a wonderful trainer at the Deaf Extreme Statewide Transition Conference. His work with Camp Juliana touched the lives of many young students who were Deaf as well. I will miss him, and I am filled with sorrow and sympathy at the loss his family must endure. I am also filled with gratitude and joy for the contributions that he made in GA in the field of work with the Deaf, and for the many lives he touched and enriched.##imported-begin##Katherine J. “ John, I am at loss for words. My heart is hurting and breaking. It is just hard to understand what a man with a great outlook on life would do something like this. I will always remember your smile (and your laughter). You will be sorely missed by me and the Deaf community throughout. You have no idea how many lives you have touched especially through the eyes of the deaf children. They look up to you and you are their hero. God got his angel back but please look over us and send down your love from above. We loved you and will always love you because of your foremost dedication to the cause you worked hard for.

Also you have done things for me. John, you were my voice and I will always cherish that. I will miss his voicing and I know he will be voicing for me up there!

My love to the Bramlett's Family, please know John is here with all of us in spirit.
