“ Dear Brett, My sincere condolences to you and your family on the passing of your soulmate and dear husband John. While it is good to know that John is at peace and no longer suffering, I know his loss is so hard for you. You know John is still with you and watching over you. May the wonderful memories you shared with John help you through this difficult time. You both are in my thoughts and prayers. Patty Skiersch

“ *Dear Brett,
I have so many memories of John and I growing up together. When Kelley was born he became an important part of her life as well.
I know life will be different for you now, however, hold in your heart the love you both shared. All the happy times you both had together.
We will miss him dearly.
Keep your memories close in you in heart.*
