I knew john from school in the late 70's we hung out together a good bit off and on. I recently reached out to him and was able to chat a little on Facebook. I knew he was haunted from that tragic car accident from back then. I hope he has finally found peace.

“ So sorry to hear of John’s passing. I have not seen or spoke to him in many years, but there was a time we were as close as brothers. I remember many good times with him. I regret not keeping in touch John and his family, H.O. And Miss Anne were always good to me. Can’t believe I’m the only one left in this picture. Panama City Fl. 1987 I think. Sarah, I hope you are doing well. Derek Ritchie. Left to right Derek, Ronnie Parker, Bruce Schafer, Bill Craft, and John Casteel.

“ I’ll never forget the moment I met John. I felt called to his hospital room before I even met him. We both cried the entire time we talked that day. He told stories about racing and his hopes and dreams for his son. He talked me into sneaking him milk. He shocked me with his sheer willpower and strength getting into his wheelchair alone. John showed me a world of wonder that I could have never dreamed of. He asked me recently, “Who am I?”, He knew who he was, it was one of many tests. I replied, John you are kind, honest, strong, smart as hell, feisty, and good.” He gave me satisfied huff of contentment. Thank you John for being such a legend, giving far more memorable moments than I anticipated and letting me care for you through all those long nights.
