“ John was a very kind and gentle man. He was well-read and knowledgeable about many topics. When I was downsizing and giving some books away, he only wanted to see the non-fiction selections. He will be missed.

“ Johnny was my friend and brother in law. In life we are very fortunate to find a true friend and I was lucky to have him in my life for 52 years. We shared many great times at the Everett family home where mom Everett would amaze me with her wonderful meals, then great conversation. Johnny always knew more about any subject than I could believe. Johnny loved being in business for himself, and he earned the respect of clients and vendors. Johnny was kind to me and always made me feel like a good friend. His passing is an immeasurable loss in my life.

“ John was a very intelligent person. He did not read fiction books. He liked historical material. He liked to play scrabble. He would come up with words I had never heard of. I teased him at times and told him I thought he made them up. Wayne would look in the dictionary and there they were. John not only knew words but he could pronounce them and knew the meaning of them. He amazed me. He was a kind and gentle person. I will miss him. He was a very good friend.

“ I'm sure John is happy as he sits in that giant Waffle House in the sky. His favorite Nascar driver, Kyle Busch, won the race today!

“ John was a very kind and considerate man. He would always ask how I was doing. He would come over to help straighten up my yard and I would ask him if he would like a Dr. Pepper and he would say, " yes, that's my favorite" and we would both have one. I will miss you John! Rest in peace!

“ John loved the Waffle House. For years, every Saturday morning we would go there. Most every time we were coming back from Home Depot, the doctor, the movies, any time there was a long trip, we would stop at one. He would tell me I was committing a crime to go past a Waffle House without stopping. He was my friend and I will miss him.
