“ My condolences to the Fain family. I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I told Susan that I lost my Daddy on the 12th of this month, and I do know how you all feel right now. I know you will miss him everyday, but we all have to be happy in knowing where he is now. Prayers for all of you.

“ To The John Fain Family:

John was a wonderful Christian man my cousin and a fellow veteran and someone I will never forget. I can recall fishing with him on Rocky Creek in Wilkes County as a young man myself. I often traveled on the road and enjoyed the numerous times I was lucky enough to come by his home in Fairmont and visited him. He will be dearly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you. With My deepest Sympathy Marion E Turpin and Family.
