“ Sorry to hear of Mr. Hammonds passing. I grew up in Tallahassee and the Hammond family and my family were very close. I remember accompanying Mr. John on his Thursday out of town runs during the summer months with Gordon's Potato Chips. Many, many fond memories especially the card games the parents played. Mary, Kathy let me know if there is anything we can do for you. I work for The Walton Tribune. mike.gasaway@waltontribune.com

“ Mary and Kathy,

My deepest sympathy to you and the rest of your family and friends for your loss. I only met your dad once, but through your stories of him I feel like I knew him. He seemed to share some traits and sense of humor with my dad - would have been great if they could have met here but maybe they will meet in heaven. I know your dad was a great guy because he raised such fine daughters. Your dedication to helping him through your mom's illness and his knee surgery last year speaks much of the love you had for him. I hope you can be comforted at least a little that he is now reunited with your mother.
