“ Dear Debbie, John, Lola and Bela,
The news of John's death sadden me. Pat and John were not only good neighbors and friends, they were more than that. Siegfried and John got to know each other in the "Midtown," on West Price Street. They are probably reminiscing about their escapades before your Mom and I came into the picture. Your parents were the first of Siege's friends that I got to know. That was over 50 years ago. We could have celebrated our golden wedding anniversary this fall. That means that David will be 50 soon. We were so lucky to find an apt. right next door to where you lived. You, Dave and Deb probably can not remember that time. I don't remember where Deb was that evening, but I can remember that on my 25th birthday (pregnant) David sat on my lap in our apt. While we were eating dinner and calmly picked up each pea and replaced each and every one on the other side of the mashed potatoes. I don't remember why we were baby-sitting that evening. Every time we were able to visit you and your parents, it was always like old times. The years between the visits just faded away and we immediately picked up where we had left off at the last visit. It is so hard to loose a loved one. I too, had to watch Siege's slow decline. One finds comfort knowing that they are now at peace in a place where there is no more sorrow or pain. I will never forget both your Mom and Dad. They shared a wonderful part of our lives with us. It was an honor to know and love them. I hope that all of you will find some comfort thru my words. I can express my deepest sympathies to you but you must know that I still mourn Pat and mourn your Dad with you. They were truly good friends.

You will be hearing from me again soon.

Affectionately,
Linda and Sons

“ I have fond memories of spending a week in New Jersey at the Koenig residence in the 70's. It was so kind of John to have me there and got to share a family picnic before I flew home.
