“ We lived across the street from the Lillo's for 15 years. Although Johnnie was grown we would see him often and he always would have a big smile and wave or say hello. Johnnie would always drop everything and try to help us if there was anything we needed while he was around. We are so very sorry for your loss and we will keep the family in our prayers.

“ John was the sweetest, kindest, most free spirited person to know. His love for his family was unmeasurable. He was passionate about cars, and was an honest mechanic. Thank you for being a part of our family, we all love and will miss you dearly.

“ John would light up the room with his upbeat personality. He would give you the shirt off his back. Never saw him in a bad mood or negative disposition. He was our neighbor who we watched grow up with my son David since moving here in '96. He was a very knowledgeable Mr Fix it who seemed to just enjoy helping others. And when his son Caesar was born he was beaming w pride and so happy he loved that boy. Joe, Ethel and family along w Kimberly you are in our hearts and prayers during this difficult time.

“ We both moved from New Jersey to GA in the summer of 1996, we were neighbors and it did not take long for us to become close companions. He was a true brother to me. He was the funniest person I knew, a real geniune rare sense of humor. John could see the good in everything and everyone. He loved working on cars and had a gift for it. Give him a 10mm socket and a wrench and a pair of pliers and he could fix it. Growing up I stayed at your house more often than my own. Things didn't change much as we got older.

John 16:22 “So with you: Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.”

“ Dear John, you were simply the best dad I've ever seen in action. We will miss you terribly! Thank you for your zeal for life, for welcoming everyone you encountered and for over all being amazing! I know you're in heaven talking about gears, alternators, and engines. Love you until we meet again
