“ My memory of John is of a dear, caring and friendly man who helped us much in our own time of need. I have a vivid memory....24 years ago, shortly after he and Laurie were married....of my car stalling in a busy street in Buffalo. I had been at a doctor's appointment because I was 8 months pregnant. A police officer helped me get the car off the road and got me to a phone in a gas station. Who did I call? Whose calm voice reassured me on the phone before I waddled back to my car? John Orszulak. I hadn't known him long, but by this time, he had rented a side of his duplex to us, helped us settle there....and patiently helped us with our never-ending car issues!

I am so thankful that the Lord brought John into Laurie's life...and so, into my life. I will miss him dearly...that sweet Pookie Bear.
