“ My brother informed me of Chuck's passing. David and I grew up with Chuck, Vince and Ricky in Brandon. Although I was young, I remember Chuck's brave face as he endured his cancer fight. I was the little sister among a neighborhood of guys, but Chuck always made me feel welcome. All of the brothers made sure I was schooled in all things "boy".... from playing in the woods building tree forts to improving my basketball skills. I remember his whole family being kind and welcoming. As I read this tribute wall, I am not surprised to see what a wonderful family man he turned out to be. All of you are in our thoughts as you grieve your loss of Chuck. May the memories you have of him pull you through the tough times.

“ Uncle Chuck,

Just wanted to take a minute to share a few memories with you. I remember one day you fell on the tall task of entertaining Josh and I at Aunt Amber and Uncle Vic's place in Jacksonville. It was right around the time the Rocketeer Movie came out and you would sink us down to the bottom of the pool with us clung to your back, push off the bottom and rocket us up to the surface. You made us feel like little Rocketeers. Unfortunately for you, your legs were our jet packs. Lucky for us you had enough fuel in the tank to satisfy our superhero pallets. I also have to thank you for taking us for a few spins in your car when we came to visit in Atlanta when we were young. You took it upon yourself to make sure we had a working knowledge of the classic Pearl Jam and Nirvana tunes of the time via your cassette deck. Lastly I will always appreciate you taking the time to meet up for dinner at your Mom and Dad's whenever I made it in town to visit. I always looked forward to your funny stories and watching you push your parents buttons. There was never a dull moment at the dinner table with you around it. I'm sorry that I won't be there in person to send you off, but I know you would understand given my current location. I sure will miss you man.
