“ I remember John fondly from high school. A very nice guy. Its sad that we lose our classmates, but its a reality that we've made it to "that" age, even though we remain young in heart. I'm sorry to know there will be one less to share our 50th high school celebration next year. I'm sure John will be with us in spirit. My deepest sympathy to his family.##imported-begin##Mary Linda Brooks Faulk, Hendersonville, NC##imported-end##

“ John and I were classmates in the Monroe High School Class of 1964. I have not seen him in a long time and did not know that he had been in poor health recently. I am sorry for his untimely passing and for your loss. I have shared the information about the visitation with the others in our class.##imported-begin##Carol Ash Bradley##imported-end##

“ Dear family,
I can see the infectious smile on Johnny's face as we fished my Dad's lake in the summers of our cut-off shorts, no shirts and no shoes days. Great memories of all our cousins. Too bad we have to grow old..
Best wishes to you all.
