“ Our hearts go out to the Brady family in their time of loss. I personally have known Mr. Brady my entire life, and he has always shown an impeccable personality and warm spirit.

He has been a close, true friend to my grandparents, and I offer my sincere condolences on behalf of myself, my family, and an honorable man who is no longer among us to do so, but would if he could.

Jay has affected many lives in a good way, and we will miss him, but are thankful to G-d to have known him.##imported-begin##John and Kimberly Jones##imported-end##

“ We will meet again uncle Jay!! That is one thing I do know!! It has been along time since we have seen each other, but I do have so many great memories. Running from mamaw Parr's house to yours when I was just a little girl! You were "my uncle Jay". You are loved by so many and will always be!

Now rest, until we all meet again!##imported-begin##Sabrina Brady##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. It has been such a pleasure just knowing Jay and his family all these years.

The Whole Brady family has been a blessing in my life. May you find comfort in knowing that Jay is probably singing Bass in the Heavenly Choir.

May God Bless You All.

With Love

“ One of the best tennessee nine (marble players) of all time. Played marbles with "J" all my life. He will be greatly missed. Great competitor.

May Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ fill that void that has been left in his family. I know they will miss him.

Best news of all is that "J" is probably getting up a game in Heaven already!
