It's sad that we were never included in anything including his passing but he did have a father, John Bryon Holloway, who was not even mentioned in his obituary that loved him very much!!

“ Tina and family,
Joey was an incredible man. We will always treasure our friendship with you. You will be in our prayers. We cherish fond memories of late night meals and visiting your campsites. Joey had a twinkle in his eyes and loved you all dearly.

“ Joey was always so professional and great to me in my relationship with him and the company. Just a stand up guy. So very sorry and to hear of the great loss. He will be missed as a solid human being in a world that is having fewer of his kind of character and beliefs.

“ Hello.
My name is Julia Koepsell. My son is an employee of your late husband company. His name is Erik Koepsell He told us about your loss of your husband and dad.
Erik spoke highly of Joey and enjoyed working with him. He sounded like a good man and very spiritual in his thoughts and was loved by many.
I wanted to extend my Sympathy to your family and friends at this difficult time.
He is now in the hands of the Lord and has no more pain.
Rest in Peace Mr. Holloway
