

Joseph "Joe" Edward Schwering

March 30, 1966 - July 17, 2021

Joseph "Joe" Edward Schwering was born on March 30th, 1966, to Elaine J Schwering and Richard D Schwering. July 6th, 2021, he had his first hip replacement and was excited for his second so he could get back to work and be healed for his grandson Aiden-Joseph, who was named after him. He passed away due to cardiac arrest on July 17th, 2021, at 6:45am. His memorial service will be held Saturday July 31st at 10:30am in the Lawrenceville Chapel of Tim Stewart Funeral Home.

Joe had a can of Copenhagen a day addiction, an affinity for "fire water," and he was passionate about the sprinkler business that he spent his whole life working in. He took pride in being a hard worker, getting the job done quickly and never missing a day of work. He spent his time off pickin' his Martin guitar, fishing, and spending time with his family. He loved to make people smile and laugh and help them see that everything would be alright.

He was a fighter. He grew up as a boxer, and he used the talents he learned to protect people. He fought for the people he loved, for the underdog, he fought depression and won, and if he could have—he would have fought to be here with us today.

His sister was Tonya his greatest birthday gift, his grandson Aiden-Joseph was his little best friend who he loved to feed licks of ice cream, his daughters Jodi and Abigail, were the loves of his life and his best friends, his nephews Christian and Gavin were cherished and loved so much by him, his daughter in law Samantha Schwering and his future son in law Nermin Alimanovic and brother in law David Munn made him proud, and his girlfriend Angel Black was his literal angel.

He was preceded in death by his sisters, Linda Dee Schwering, Lisa Ann Schwering, Carla Sue Schwering, and his daughter Meagan Elizabeth Schwering.

He is survived by his parents Elaine and Richard Schwering, his daughters Abigail Grace Schwering and Jodi Elizabeth Schwering, his girlfriend Angel Black, his sister Tonya Munn, his brother-in-law David Munn, his nephews Gavin and Christian Munn, his ex-wife Lori Knowles, and his grandson Aiden-Joseph Schwering with whom was named after him.

“ First of all my thoughts & prayers to all the family & friends who loved Joe so dearly !! Over the years I've had the honor of having him as a dear friend & heaven knows we've made a lot of sweet music together along with his ex-wife Lori who I always referred to as our little Emmy Lou !! So R.I.P. my friend but keep those fingers limbered up Bro because one day we'll all be together again & we'll have us a jam session that will last forevermore !! My apologies to the family for not being able to be there for them !! Having some health issues of my own that hopefully the good Lord will take care of but if I have to go I'll have me a dear friend waiting for me & we'll make a lot more beautiful music together !!! 🎸💔🎸💔🎸💔🎸

“ Dick, Elaine & Family,
I am truly saddened in learning of Joe's passing & extend my warmest condolences. My memories of Joe are of his love of life and his never ending desire to help anyone in need. He never missed an opportunity to pick his guitar alone or with others...strangers or friends, but especially, his Dad. I know this is a devastating loss for all of you, however, rest assured..you will one day be together again.
Fondly, Don Morris
