“ My cousin Joey & his brother John were more than cousins to me & my brother. We all shared great times together at all the family holidays & gatherings. I remember every Sunday in the summertime with our families together at the Paramus swimming hole. Living in West New York, that was like a country club to us, & the boys swam & played ball all day long there.

As we grew up, Joey, Ike & I all played on Len & Lou's softball team in WNY, & of course the sponsor was a bar where we drowned our softball losses together after the game.

After, we joined the K of C where we continued to play on their softball team, & then headed back to the council bar where we once again drowned our losses. Our cousins all shared a lot of the same sports activities, & I remember going out early Saturday mornings with Joe & the K of C to Lincoln Park to play golf & drowned our missed birdie opportunities at the 19th hole. Actually, it was more like trying for a par.

The cousins continued to get together at the Giants' football games, where we tailgated & afterward would drown ourselves after another Giant Loss. Although, we did go on to win 4 super bowls. We'll never forget the JOE K chants at Giant stadium.

My cousin was more than a cousin to me, more like a brother. I have so many good memories that I will cherish forever, but I will miss him like hell.

RIP JOE

Love ya Cuz

“ I'll forever have great memories of my cousin Joey (aka Moose), his Joe Garagiola "Dependable Starting Dodge" impersonation, the story of his neighbor's kid banging on the fence with its unfortunate consequences (for the kid) and all the good times at family events especially the cheese pulls and his half of Uncle Raymond's $5 bill. A wonderful guy.
