“ Matthew and I met about 8 yrs ago on singsnap. He came into my life and I was blessed with his friendship. We did many duets together and had many heartfelt conversations. I just can't believe he's gone. He was such a playful character I wish this was one of his jokes and I'll hear from him and his mischievous laughter saying gotcha! I'm back!

He definitely was a spokesperson for the Lord and had no shame in his belief. He was a true friend and blessing to anyone that got to know him.

My deepest sympathies to Matthew's family and friends for this loss. Matthew my Georgia Boy

I thank God for bringing you into my life

I embrace our memories to help me through the days when I'm deeply missing you

You will always hold a place in my heart

And this flower will keep blooming in your memory

Love

“ Hi my name is Anna and I knew Matt from Singsnap , an online community of Karaoke singers . I met Matt about a year ago , maybe , I had heard one of his songs and he made me laugh . I was going through a hard time at home and was very reserved and just didn't want to be around many people I suppose . He asked me to sing with him and I was so reluctant , but he kept at me and I finally did sing with him , he gave me the most awesome encouragement . His encouragement was always appreciated , and with time I didn't need his encouragement , (although he gave it anyways) , as I would just grab a song he sang and sing along . He will forever be a beacon of light when it comes to giving me courage to step out of my comfort zone , as those were some of his last words to me ... don't be afraid to step out and just do what makes you happy ! Have fun with it ! Praise the Lord !!! I loved his tribute songs , his word , his love of the Lord and I am sure he touched many lives . God gave us all a beautiful soul to treasure but for a short time but He made sure it was one of His best souls to be loved by .

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Matt's passing. He was a great guy who loved to make people laugh. While I only knew him online he was a wonderful man who always made me smile and I enjoyed chatting with him often on Singsnap. I can't believe he's gone. We were just talking a few weeks ago. You all have my deepest sympathy.

“ Matt was a light in the lives of all he met. He was a mainstay in our Singsnap Singing Chat Room. Always had kind words and encouragement for other singers, especially newcomers. He is sadly missed. We had an impromptu Tribute to him in the room, and people sang songs for him, and duets with him. Some even played recordings that he had joined them on. It lasted the entire day, and was a marvelous testament to how many lives he touched. Rest in Peace Matt, and thank you for bringing your light into our hearts.

I met Matt through my love for singing very recently this past May online. And with his sense of humor, good heart, he was my first friend on that site.

We had many days of jokes and conversations and sidebar chuckles. He is missed so much and will always be a huge part of the lives he touched with the person he was. Some people come into your life to teach you the value of the things that matter and Matt reminded me that its not the bank balances or the things you have but the way you make people feel when they are in your company/conversation. Priceless!

Rest in Peace my friend M6Matt, long days of fishing, long uninterrupted days of singing and all the dessert you want :) ... gone too soon, never forgotten - always in my heart your Malaysian foodie friend, ani

“ *Matt was a good person to have known through the chat site Singsnap. He had a funny sense of humour , a kind word or a cheeky word for his friends. He was encouraging and kind towards other singers. Or he was sarcastic and witty ! To his family and friends that know him very different to what I do please understand. He was a genuine person to me and vey sincere about his own struggles. It was apparent that he had made some positive changes compared to who he may have been. As a person and someone who works in mental health I have a lot of respect for that. His Singsnap friends are hurting and miss his music , humour and kindness.
Respect and condolences to his family and friends.
