

Joseph William Poole

March 27, 1973 - February 13, 2023

POOLE - At 4 pm on Monday February 13, 2023, Joseph William Poole, 49, passed away unexpectedly inside his Lawrenceville home, surrounded by love. Paramedics were called to the scene and attempted to revive him, but it was too late. Born in Ft Leavenworth, Kansas to Lt. Col. Joseph Leslie Poole and Florence Elizabeth McDonald Warner Poole, on March 27. He was the youngest of five children. He was called Jay by all who knew him.

Jay was preceded in death by both his parents, his brother Rory Warner, his sister-in-law, Yvonne Warner and one nephew Jamie Warner. He leaves behind a devoted partner, Rachel Meltz, whose family he had become an integral part of over the course of 20 plus years; one brother, Alan Warner; two sisters, Mysty Hilderbrand and Desiree Lambert; six nephews, Kelley, Cody, David, Chad, Max, and Hunter; one niece, Hayley; and several cousins. Jay was one of a kind, sweet and kind, yet always willing to protect the bullied or help someone in need. Everyone he held, dogs, babies, family, and friends instantly felt comforted and safe in his embrace. He was calm, cool, confident, compassionate, and strong. His contagious laughter filled his surroundings with joy. Jay's favorite words to live by were "Don't sweat the small stuff" (and it's all just small stuff) and "Don't let the bastards get you down".

Jay was methodical, taking great care in his tasks while working circles around most crews. He was a beast in the garden, smooth on the dance floor and had impeccable taste. He marched to his own beautiful beat. He was a knowledgeable bird watcher, a gaming expert, a constant reader, a prolific platelet donor, and an all-around awesome, easy, and fun human being to be around. Jay was way too young and full of life. He will be remembered always with so much love.

Anyone wanting and able to share warm memories while gathering to celebrate Jay's life is invited to join us, Sunday, March 5, 2023, from 12-3pm at Mimosa Hall, 127 Bulloch Avenue, Roswell, GA 30075.
