“ *The LORD bless thee, and keep thee:
The LORD make His Face to shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:
The LORD lift up His Countenance upon thee, and give thee peace....Numbers 6:24-26.
What a beautiful service today....sermon.,singing.,eulogy and her own voice in praise....what a testimony for the ages...This is the way its supposed to be. I wish I could have known her and yet after today, somehow feel as if I do....Love Teresa and Robert...what's not to love? Robert is one of the dearest men I know and nearly breaks a rib when he hugs you....my prayer for you will continue to be...comfort, peace. patience in grief and sorrow, joy in in the morning...GOD bless you! as I know He will....abundantly above all we could ask or think....In HIM, “ Josie showed love to every person that came into her life. Josie was my idol growing up, I wanted to be like her, look like her, sing like her & wanted her to love me best. I loved her fixing my hair and letting me work in her shop those summers I was desperate to get away from my house.

She was beautiful and amazing and funny and sassy. I know she is having a blast in heaven right now. Her house was covered in angels and now I can see her trying to lead an angel choir somewhere and if there are halos in heaven, hers will have sequins on them.

I watched my mom and dad care for Josie for the past 8 years and have seen love in action by watching and learning from their example and sacrifices.

Empty words of love mean nothing until they are accompanied by action. Thank you mom and dad for all the years you took care of her and for all the lessons I have learned by watching you. When no one else cared, or it was just too hard, you were always there for Josie no matter what.

I love you aunt Josie, I will miss you. I am so thankful you are in heaven now and your pain is finally over forever.##imported-begin##BeLinda Dumas##imported-end##
