“ I met Josh when he was in 7th grade. I remember thinking "who is this kid in all black listening to goth music?". Little did I know he would have a profound impact on my life. Later he moved out and we remained friends. What I mostly remember about Josh was his love for his little girl and his mother. Josh was funny, loyal, a joy to be around. We lost touch when I moved out of state. I love you man.

“ Now I'm having fun! When Josh was about six, Nancy and I took he and Kelly to Orlando. We went to Epcot and as the sun was going down, Kelly and I went in to use the restroom leaving Nancy and Josh at the intersection of the main sidewalk and the walk to the restroom, a high traffic area. When Kelly and I exited the restroom, Joshua had put sunglasses on and was standing there pretending to play a piano. He commented to people as they walked by "I am a white Stevie Wonder and I am a wonder!" That kid was a laugh a minute!!!

“ Nancy and I had taken Josh to Six Flags when he was about six years old. We rode a little ride that had airplanes to sit in and the ride went around lifting you up and down. I was in a plane alone and behind me, Josh and Nancy were in a plane with Josh in the front seat. When the ride ended, Josh looked at me and said "Anti, you should see your hair!". Apparently, as we went around and around the wind had blown the front of my hair straight up at the front. It was hilarious!

“ Yet another memory...Rather than call me Auntie, Josh dubbed me Anti and so it was!

“ I have so many memories of Josh! When we lived in Florida and Nancy lived in Texas, we coordinated our visits to Atlanta. We got to Mama and Daddy's behind Nancy getting there. She was pregnant with Josh and lying on the sofa in the living room. I walked in and called her name and Josh jumped inside of her at the sound of my voice. Up to that time, she had not felt him move yet. He jumped again when I spoke. I tell you what. That kid and I had a special connection! I love you FOREVER Josh!

“ When people would ask how I knew Joshua Sinko (because he was the type that everyone knew!) I just found it easier to say “he’s family”. It didn’t matter that he and my sister were no longer married, he was still family. He is my niece’s father, & my kids have only ever known him as Uncle Josh.

Like the rest of us, he had his flaws. But, those flaws were far outweighed by his humor & his love for those of us he called family. Josh could always make me laugh, he was always smiling. I’ll always remember how he called his closest friends “brother”, and he meant it. They were his brothers. I’ll remember how he always gave me a hug when he saw me & say “how you doing, Cheri? I love you girl”. I’ll remember how he turned into a big kid when playing with his nieces & nephew. But, most of all I’ll remember the love he had for his mom & daughter. No one on the planet could compare to those two in his eyes. They were his heart, they were his light in the darkness, his shade in the light, they were his world.

Our world will now be a little less funny, but his legacy & memory will live on forever through those of us lucky enough to call him our family & friend. We love you, Josh 😞

“ Ms. Nancy and Darien,
Sinko was one of the greatest men I have ever known. He was pure love and light. I will never find another friend like him. I can not begin to express my sorrow at his passing and I simply can not even comprehend the loss you've suffered. I can only pray to God that he eases your pain and brings you comfort in this terrible time. Please know that I keep yall in the same place I've kept Sinko for all these years...in my heart and in my prayers. I will never forget the friendship I have with him and I will cherish the memory of all those years spent by his side with me until I meet him again.

Love Always...Nickee Walker

“ Nancy, Darien and Laura words will never express enough how much my heart hurts for each of you. Even though Josh leaves us with so many memories to cherish I know life will never be the same without his caring, funny and loving kind of person he was known by all to be. Like so many others I too loved Josh and I will miss him in all the days ahead. He touched so many lives, in what now feels like a short time here. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers and I pray for God to bring comfort to you in all the days ahead. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for your family. Love to All, Darlene Head
