“ To die at 24 is tragic, particularly for a young man with such talent and gifts. I'm so glad I got to meet Josh and spend time with him. I wish his path on earth had veered in another direction. I pray the family has some comfort and solace in this - I believe Josh is in a better place, a heavenly place, with no more sorrow, no more pain, and even no death. A place where our Creator lives with His people, and He will even wipe the tears from their eyes. I do pray the family is comforted, as they still remain here without Josh, left only with their memories.##imported-begin##Sam Connor##imported-end##
