“ Sorry to hear that a my dear friend that share the same birthday has passed away. All of the Stover's were my first family that excepted my family at Napier Avenue Church of God. My dad Luther Strickland, Jr was her dad's associate pastor. Pastor Stover did my dad's funeral in 2012. All this family is loved by all.

Joy was a precious lady. She was a friend to numerous ministers and their families throughout the years. She will be sorely missed but she is HOME now with her parents and patiently waiting for the love of her life, Pastor Steve.
RIP Joy! You have successfully run the race! You will forever be in our hearts.

Joy was one of the most precious ladies I have ever known. She will be greatly missed here, but I can only imagine her joy at being home with Jesus and her precious family who have gone on before her. Until we see you again, Joy, Rest In Peace.

Joy was the step-daughter and step-sister everyone dreamed about. Her kindness, resilience, and infectious spirit will forever be cherished. Her sweet voice and smile we will never forget. No words can explain how much you will be missed, especially by your dear husband, Steve. We look forward to the day we will see you again! Love you forever, Mom and Miriam
