“ I don't have a memory however I do have encouragement to share. I went to school with Mandy I've always known her to be a sweet delightful person. Being that kind of person doesn't always come natural usually it comes from how you are raised. There's no doubt that in my mind that she learned her compassionate ways from her sweet mother. I want all of you to always know that God has promised us for decades that we will get to see our dead love ones again just as long as we follow his commands. He's promised us at Revelations 21:3-5 that yes he will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore the former things has passed away. He sent his son for those exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but will live forever (john 3:16). These are encouraging points that helps me from time to time get through those tough moments with the loss of my mother who I lost in '95. I pray for you all strength and endurance during this time! “ Tim and Mandy,

So sorry I never had the opportunity to meet Joyce, but from your photos on facebook, feel I knew her. She had a life well-lived and left a lasting legacy. May your memories of the things she did...and the things she said...give you comfort in all the years to come. She made a difference in this world...something we all aspire to. God bless you and may He wrap his ever-loving arms around you.

“ Dear Tim ,
Nancy and I are so sorry for your loss. There really are no words. Just know that you and your family will be in our prayers daily. We both are here for you should you want to vent or just talk about other things. There are no rules for grieving , there is no wrong way. God bless you always , especially during this difficult time.
Sincerely ,
Bobby and Nancy Beiser

“ Tim, Mandy & Caleb, I wish I knew words to say that would grant you peace but only God can give you sweet peace and rest. I loved Joyce very much and I have many fond memories of her that I will treasure. I love each one of you and have been praying for God to give you strength and rest that I know you need. In your hours of desperate loneliness my prayer is that our Lord and Savior will give you the grace to get thorough! Love, Susan Freeman Richardson
