“ Joyce, you were my best friend. I loved you and sharing those many telephone conversations about our hopes and dreams for our families. I wish that we had more time to do the things that we talked about like reconnecting our families and discovering our lineage background. Now that my dear Joyce has gone home to be with the Lord, her Mom, Dad, Grandfather, Grandmother, Aunts, Uncles, Sister, Brother and Daughter are all together to welcome and embrace her at her new glorious heavenly home. What a celebration they must be having right now! My heart aches for losing her here, but so rejoices that she is now in her new perfect body. Sending hugs and condolences to each of you as you grieve the loss of this beautiful lady and dear friend.
