“ *It as good reading the entries about how well loved this person was and still is, in memory. It is so sad that people like her who have touched so many have to die. My Mother was also well loved, and missed. You never know what you really have in a mother until they are gone. Then you start to miss all the loving things they did for you, based on there sinscere loving and giving personality. God's word the Bible offers us a possitive hope. God's son Jesus Christ, foretold that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. (john 5:28,29) This foretold promise will allow obedient humans to see their loved ones again. “ I was in the same grade as Terry throughout Moreland and Bass. I still remember Mrs. Causey driving us around on the days of the paper sale to pick up newspapers. In my memory she had a fine sense of humor and could talk to kids without talking down to them. She was also very pretty! Condolences to all the family.

“ Words cannot express the sadness and intense emotion that I have felt in the past 24 hours. My heart goes out to everyone in our family. Most of all Ronnie, Terry, Billy and Caryn. Your mother was the most precious person I have ever known. Let's dedicate this Thanksgiving to Aunt Joyce and thank God for giving her to us for 82 years. She is a role model to us all as we have all been touched by her kind and loving spirit. She deserves to be home with the Lord and celebrate this Thanksgiving with the ones who have gone before. I am so thankful to have known her. Love to all,

“ Ms. Joyce was one of the nicest people that I ever had the pleasure of meeting. I was lucky to have known her. She leaves behind a fabulous legacy of fun, great stories, fun tricks to tell if you are going to have girl or boy babies and amazing food. Thoughts and prayers go out to Caryn, Kelly, Keegan, Riley, Rachel, Billy, Kaye and the rest of the family. She will be missed.###imported-begin##Meg###imported-end##
