“ I am sorry for the loss of your loved one. When you think about our first parents, only if they would have remained obedient, (Genesis 2:17), they along with their offspring would have lived forever. We would not be suffering sickness, Will God's purpose ever be fulfilled? God's word the Bible gives us a wonderful hope at John 5:28,29. There Jesus promised, Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming, in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come on out. Yes millions now dead will live again. At that time God's original purpose will almost be fulfilled. Psalms 37:10,11, and verse 29. For further comfort, please go to www.jw.org.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##

“ To the family,

It is with deepest sympathy that I wish to extend to my most sincere condolences for the loss of your beloved father, husband, and friend. As your family prepares to move forward with the rest of your lives, it is with high hopes that you may find comfort from the Holy Scriptures. "Revelation 21:3,4-...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. The former things have passed away." Take care.
