After High School she was introduced to Harold Bryant of Unadilla who she ultimately married on April 2, 1955. Harold was in the US Army and they moved through out the world. They started their family and had their first born in Jackson MS, Harold Jr. in 1956. From there, they moved through out the US. They landed in Schoffenberg Germany in 1962 and had their 2nd child, Gary. Back to the US they moved and ended up Ft. Lewis Washington where Darrell was born. Again, moving to various locations state side and ultimately retiring in Ft. Benning GA.

“ Judy was a Dear Friend. Gary & I Loved her like a sister (family). She was always sending us canned jams & jellies she had prepared. We love her whole family. Judy was one of the kindest, most generous, and Godly ladies we have ever known. She was always calling us to make sure we were OK, before she got sick and had to leave home. We'd call each other just to let each other know we loved each other and God had laid it on our hearts to pray for each other. She is at peace and know longer suffering, but all who loved will miss her forever.
