“ My presious Judy, I miss you so much.I am so proud of you, for the 4 yrs, you fought this battle, for the life you lived, for your family,for all you've accomplished,for being the best sister in the world,and so much more. You've been such a great inspiration to so many people.,some you never knew. Fourty nine years ago,everyone thought Mom was crazy for allowing you & Bill to wed. I think I was the only one that knew you & Bill were truely in love & believed you'd make it. Bill has been such a wonderful husband,father, provider and the best caregiver you could ever have had. Thank you for being the best sister in the world. God knew exactly what He was doing when He allowed one of His special angels to slip away on Jan.8, 1948 and come to us as Judy Sue Groover (Shumake) You have shared so much with all of us in so many ways. Thank You Lord for my precious baby sister----- Judy!!!##imported-begin##Gladys Broome (sister)##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. A loss of someone so dear is never easy. I worked with Judy at Parsons for many years,, she was such an inspiration. What I remember most beyond her willingness to help whenever asked was that whenever I asked about her grandchildren, her eyes would light up. I hope your memories of her and the knowlege of her enduring love for each of you brings you a measure of comfort.###imported-begin###Debra James###imported-end###

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family and loved ones of this brave woman, Judy Shumake. Valiantly, she battled this disease. She was a pillar of faith the entire time, always giving her encouragement to others, when she was the one in a battle for her life. She was an example to all who are blessed to have known her. Her loss will be felt for a long time on earth, but Heaven is a brighter place for her presence.##imported-begin##Debi Chapman##imported-end##
