“ We will always be grateful to Julian Danielly for his generous spirit and his true caring for those less fortunate than himself. Our family met Julian as he hosted the BTFC fishing extravaganza for our children afflicted with brain tumors. Our son, Martin, loved attending these annual events and after his passing in 2008, Julian honored our family by allowing one of his trees to be dedicated by the BTFC to Martin. We are saddened to hear of Julian's passing, but know he is now free and in our Lord's welcoming arms. Blessings to the Danielly family.

“ Fishing with my Daddy and Uncles was always a special time. We would gather at Granny's house Friday evening, play a very very long game of monopoly and prepare for fishing on Saturday. We were up at 4:00am and leaving by 4:30am. An all day fishathon would occur. Mama and Granny would come at lunchtime with the best sandwiches a little girl ever had, after all I started fishing with the men of the family when I was only four. Some of my best memories with Uncle Julian. Oh yeah I told him that I was going to marry him (he was so handsome) and to wait till I grew up, I was four then too.

“ Dear Chris and all of Julian's Family, I was so saddened to hear the news. I know Julian was generous in many ways, but it was through the annual Fishing Extravaganza for the families of children with brain tumors that I came to know him. That event over nearly two decades has delighted so many children stricken with the disease and their siblings and parents. Julian certainly touched many through his generosity and will be greatly missed.

“ I have nothing but fond memories of Julian. Years ago I fished in a club with Julian and had the opportunity to fish with him on several occasions. I remember that he was quick witted, and always had a grin on his face. I also remember his generosity. I pray that the Lord will comfort Julian's family during their time of grief. They have my sincere condolences. Eric Dell
