“ I will never forget the first moment I walked into Bud's and looked into her eyes. I didn't even know her name but I told my friends right at that moment "I'm going to marry that woman!" I told her the exact same thing moments later and she just laughed. For months I kept trying to get her to go out with me, without any luck. I even tried to impress her mentioning I worked in the Movie Industry and she could visit the set. One evening for no reason she agreed, making sure we drove in her car. After arriving, she walked into filming in progress, looking at me and blurted out "I thought you were Full of ST! You really do work in the movie business." That was our first date!

When we think of Julie, we think of all the good times we had with her and how much fun she was. We would come over to the house to watch the Falcons, win or lose and she always had snacks for us when we arrived; We also remember those great Apple Pies she made. They were yummy. We will always remember julie as a warm, caring and sweet person and we all will miss her very much Regina and John Nowak
