“ To the Ellington Family: Our son, Tyler, graduated with Justin and had several classes with him at LHS. He truly thought of Justin as a friend and was very upset to hear about his passing. He is away at school and could not be here for the service. We send you our prayers and deepest sympathy in your loss. May God give you strength and courage to face each day.

“ I am so, so sorry for your loss. 1 Corinthians 15:26, calls Death Gods enemy, with the great pain that occurs when many loose their loved ones you can understand why. There is hope. Jesus promised that those in the memorial tombs will...come out." In harmony with God's original purpose, those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth. (Luke 23:43, Psalms 37:29) Acording to the Bible this promised future includes perfect health and everlasting lilfe for obedient humans. “ OH Kathy...how heavy our hearts are for you . I know how very proud you always were of both Justin and Kaleigh. I don't think I ever met a prouder mom. Your children have always known you were their biggest fan...what a blessing! I want you to know we hurt for you and are praying for you. You will get through this with the Lord Almighty holding your hand every step of the way. Lean on HIM as I know you will.
Love,

“ To Justin's family, Our niece, Beth Hulen, was a good friend of Justin's. Even though we never met Justin, we know that Beth thought so much of him and we wanted you to know how sorry we are for the loss you have suffered. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Michelle, Stacy, and Tyler McCorkle###imported-begin###Michelle McCorkle###imported-end###

“ Kathy,
There is no word's which can help relief the pain which you and Kaleigh are experiencing with the lost of Justin! I recall the time's while he and Kaleigh were little and we would rolll around the floor playing and my heart weep's also. May Our God give you and Kaleigh rest along with healing in time.

God Bless!

“ Kathy, this is a very hard time and it is hard to understand why. May God bless you and Kayleigh and help you heal. I know that they say it takes time. We lost our son, Brandon about a year and a half ago, suddenly too, there is still such an empty spot. I don't want t say I know how you feel because no one can even imagine the pain you are feeling. Kevin was friends with Justin. For years Justin, Braxton, & Kevin hung out at the pool. Kevin is away in the army and it hit him like a ton of bricks. Just know that you have a lot of people out there praying for you and don't be afraid to lean on them. May the memories outweigh the pain.##imported-begin##Linda Kent##imported-end##
