“ It was an honor to have Kane as a student. Very intelligent, reliable and committed to understanding what he studied, I admired this about him. He spoke his mind intelligently and stood his own ground. He always called to inform me if he would be late or was too sick to attend class. Never too shy to ask questions to confirm he understood the mechanical or electrical aspects of automotive technology. I enjoyed your presents and enthusiasm for servicing and repairing your family member vehicles.
May God bless you and guide your spirit on this journey.##imported-begin##Monroe Sorton##imported-end##
