“Mrs. Horne taught me at West Lauderdale. One of my favorite memories of her was when she had us memorize poems or segments of stories to recite back to her. I was always so nervous and I asked her whether I should stand in front of, or sit next to her on the bench to recite my lines. She said "you can swing from the rafters if you want." It made me laugh, helped me shake off the anxiety, and recite the lines. She was one in a million. Thinking of you all today and the days ahead.

“Your mother meant the world to me and influenced my life greatly. The grammar, diagraming of sentences and writing she taught me I used daily in my career. “Mrs. Gordon” will be missed by so many of us, and we will always cherish the wonderful Lamar High School memories of her. All of you will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. Sending my love and deepest sympathy, Koko Downer Mackin

“I will miss Ms. Katherine so very much.. What a true gem she was. I will always remember her calling down in that sweet southern voice and saying Good Morning Casey, can I get a "co'cola". I can picture her skipping down those streets of gold in heaven wearing her black boots! Prayers and love to you all.
