“ I will miss Kay so very much, she was so much like a mom to me. I had known her for so many years and so much had happen over the years. She was an amazing woman and I will forever be inspired by her loving and. Selfless personality. I can't wait to see her and many others one day. For now she is the happiest she has ever been and I would love to see her smile right now knowing she has reunited with the love of her life and others she has missed over the years.
