“ *From Bob and Alice Ashman,
We know Kathy from Church for only about four years. It was a blessing to see come every Sunday morning and sing in the choir even though she hurt and had a hard time walking. She knew how many spiritual blessings she had and did not complain! Always rejoicing! She was a member of the adult Sunday School class and had a ministry of sending out cards to her class mates who were ill or discouraged. She would many times give the class devotional during the introduction of the Sunday School hour. She was truly a person who did what she could to serve the Lord Jesus Christ.*

“ What a love Ms. Kathy was to all. Her famous words, "I am Blessed," when we all were Blessed by knowing her. She was a sweet and beautiful lady who loved the Lord and is now walking with him. Will miss you so much!

“ We love our Mrs. Kathy so much! What a treasure she was to this world! We were BLESSED to have her as our friend!

I can't imagine her smiling face as she is welcomed by our Lord.

We our sad, but our hearts are happy knowing this isn't the end !
