“ Tyler my prayers are with you and your grandmother. Please call me when you feel up to it. May God Bless you in the upcoming days as you grieve.

Never forget GOD the father of all fathers who will watch over you and guide you. I wish you and the entire family the best.

God Bless to all of you.

“ I was very shaken to hear of Kaye's death. I used to drive my older daughter to school. Almost every day, my younger daughter, Christina, and I would stop for breakfast at the Waffle House. Kaye would always greet Christina with a hug, a stick of gum, or a Happy Meal toy from McDonald's that she had picked up. We always looked forward to seeing "Miss Kaye." Although I hadn't seen Kaye for a few years, we thought of her often. Her kind heart touched the lives of so many people. Our thoughts and prayers are with Tyler and all of Kaye's family and friends. She is with God and will always hold a special place in our hearts.###imported-begin###Kathy Kruger###imported-end###

“ Chip, Ricky and Karen,
It made me very sad when I learned about Kaye's death. I remember well the day she was born, and our last time together when I took her to the movies in Chattanooga (to see Octopussy)! I can't make it to Kaye's services from Virginia, but I hope that we can all get together soon. I miss you all.
