“ I do not truly know where to even begin. Kaylee was such an amazing and caring person. I remember so many 4-H trips and meetings full of laughter and I know my high school experience would have been so different without her as a part of it. I have been thinking of her and her family often and wish that distance and school had not gotten in the way of seeing each other. Missing you girl!

“ I’ve been sitting here in a fog for a week now.. Kaylee was my other half, my person, my best friend for 14 years. I still can’t find the right words to say, but i love you with every ounce of my soul.. for the rest of my life. I loved you as my sister for half of my life, and i’m so thankful that we both never questioned how much we loved or meant to each other. I will miss you and wish for the rest of my life that we could have spent the next 50 years together like we always planned. “I hope you had the time of your life.” I can’t wait until i can hug my best friend and listen to you laugh again. What a reunion that will be. I hope you’re playing that game of cards with Nana finally. Save a seat for me so I can play with you and Nana when we get to meet again. I love you, best. To infinity and beyond. Forever.

“ kaylee is one of my adopted daughters from middle school, from spend the night parties to driving those girls everywhere, one of my favorite things to do was to how fast I could embarrass them, Jessica never fell for it. if you could have seen the look all the faces of them when I started signing "don't you wish your girlfriend was hot like me " Jessica just that's my mom and just hearing kaylee laugh and say that's normal for her, rest easy sweet angel

“ The memories we made hanging out together are some of my favorite from my teen years. I will never forget your laugh or how every time you saw me you greeted me with "Brey baby!" Or "Babydoll!". I haven't stopped thinking about you for a minute since I heard you were gone. My heart is broken. I wish we could have gone through with our plan to get together so you could meet my little Chloe. You would have loved her. I can just hear you playing with her and laughing with her. I bet you would have called her "Little Babydoll" or "little Brey".

I love you doll.

“ I've known Kaylee for many years. She was friends with alot of the younger generation i know. We have had many talks about life, work, relationships etc. She was pretty open about alot of things. I will truly miss her sweet smile and reading her daily stories in facebook. She will be missed by many. Fly high 🙏 .

“ Sweet Kaylee .. you are one of the most loving , caring people I have ever known.. you can lite up the room with just your smile ..I know your in Heaven now making all the Angels smile and laugh. I will always remember you and all our talks we had . You touched a lot of lives during your short time on Earth . My heart dropped when they told me you had passed I just couldn't believe it . I know you went thru some rough times but now you are flying high with the Angels .. I love you Kaylee and I'm going to miss you and your smile 😞😞 spread your wings and fly pretty girl
