“ I remember you holding my grandson. You just loved all babies!!! I remember your fight against breast cancer and how frightened Dad and all of us were. But dynamite comes in small packages and you beat it. I remember how sick you were. I'm sorry you had to battle such a horrible disease. But you won! I was in Japan when you had your heart attack a year or two later. That was so incredibly painful for me not to be right there with you. But again, you won! I know your body got tired Mama and I think you knew. I guess none of us were ready to give you up. But you were called by God so you wouldn't hurt any more. God knows how we grieve for our Mama. I'll see you again. You watch for me when God says its my time. And for Daddy, Tami, Mary and all those beautiful grandchildren you loved and those Great grandchildren you loved. We will all be looking for you. I love you Mama,##imported-begin##Theresa Butcher##imported-end##

“ I remember high school graduation. I remember my wedding day. You were beautiful in your lovely dress. I remember you holding my first child at the hospital. And my second. I remember you giving Sarah her first bath because she was screaming and the minute you held her she quieted###imported-begin##Theresa Butcher###imported-end##

“ I also remember all those hot perfect meals you prepared for us all. Daddy was out working hard and you always made sure he had at least one good hot meal if not three. I remember when Tamara Janiece was born. You let me eat her baby cereal. I remember tiny little you exercising to Jack Lalane afterwards. I remember when Mary Rochelle was born. You were going 90 to nothing. You let nothing hold you back.###imported-begin##Theresa Butcher###imported-end##

“ Mama, I remember you always being ther for us three girls when we were children and beyond. I remember the warmed eardrops in my ears. The choir dress you made me, the zebra pants you made me, the wonderful way our house all war smelled. I remember your touch. Your turquoise eyes when you wore certain colors. I remember my baby dolls on those unforgettable Christmas mornings.###imported-begin##Theresa Butcher ###imported-end##

“ God saw she was getting tired and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around her and whispered "Come with me". With tearful eyes we watched her suffer and saw her fade away. Although we loved her dearly, we could not make her stay. Her wonderful heart stopped beating , putting her hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the best.##imported-begin##Patsy Kerr##imported-end##

“ I remember her voice..her laugh. Hearing her laugh always made me smile. Im smiling now just thinking of it. Aunt Kay was one of my very favorite Aunt's. We loved being at her & Uncle John's house as kids. There was always so much happiness there. She made the BEST sack lunches for school too! Sandwiches with mayo & swiss cake rolls for desert. So many memories I have of her...I loved her dearly as a child & even more as an adult. I missed her terribly after the move to Georgia. Wish I could have seen her more often. I love you Aunt Kay, & I know we will see each other again one day. Always,

“ My fondest memories and some of the most happiest times in my life were spent with this wonderful woman. Lisa and I lived with them for a bit when we were little and I think I can remember every bit of it because it was such a happy place all the time. Aunt Kay was the sweetest and most giving and caring woman I've known. She took us to school, made our lunches (and they were the BEST by the way), took us to the pool, wherever we wanted to go. Anything to see us smile. She was always smiling too.....even when Mary aggravated the daylight out of her!! I always thought that was soooo funny!! I wish I could have seen her more after they moved but life seemed to get in the way I guess. I regret that. Smile on my Sweet and Beautiful Aunt!! You will forever be in my heart and I will see you again someday. I love you. Lori###imported-begin##Lori Harlan-Pennington###imported-end##

“ Praying for peace and comfort for your family at this difficult time. I know how much you all adored her. She was a Beautiful person inside and out. The next days , weeks will be challenging times but lift your eyes , your pain and grift to the Lord and He will see you through. Blessings to you family !###imported-begin##Jamie & Donna Hilley / Tiffany Ketcherside & Baby Jeremiah ###imported-end##
