“ It is with sad hearts that we send our deepest condolences to your family. When some one dies at such a young age or any age it is very painful. But the bible holds out a wonderful promise for our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. John 5: 28 , 29. "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practice vile things to a resurrection of judgement.

Jehovah God gave his son Jesus Christ as a ransom so that we could have this resurrection hope and also a hope of never dying again. (Rev. 21: 3, 4)

May this bring comfort to all of you during this most difficult time. If you would like to know more about these wonderful blessings and other bible subjects please visit jw.org.##imported-begin##Yvette Durant##imported-end##

“ I was shocked when I heard the news. To the Denny family and all of her friends: I pray this momentary separation of us and Kaylyn causes us to consider our own mortality and eternity. It is my hope that you will know Jesus, our only access to God, as he provides not only salvation, but the peace that surpasses knowledge and the ability to both grieve and rejoice at the same time.##imported-begin##Travis##imported-end##

“ Kaylyn was a beautiful person inside and out. In the small amount of time I was privileged in becoming her friend I was also introduced to her amazing family. I will never forget the generosity extended by the Denny's everytime I saw them. The world has lot a shining star that burned brightly in all of our hearts, but with all of our Love and the unconditional power of family I hope the Denny's are able to find peace knowing she is in Heaven smiling down on all of us.##imported-begin##Andrew Womack##imported-end##
