“ My sympathy to the family. The Bible states that one day soon we will not experience the pain of losing a loved one in death (Revelation 21:4). Jesus said "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) He also demonstrated that he had the power from God to do that. Please read the account about what he did for his friend Lazarus that had been dead for 4 days at John 11:38-44.##imported-begin##C Phillips##imported-end##

“ We send our love, and heartfelt sympathy to our darling Sister, Marjorie, and the rest of the family on this day...as we encourage you to focus on the following; "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted."

What a wonderful assurance! One that gives you permission to celebrate the life of our Brother Keith and the presence of mind to savor the invaluable memories you shared with him...just the way he would want it.

“Love never gives up; its faith, hope, and patience never fail. Love is eternal.” (TEV – Today’s English Version) Sister Marjorie, as you ministered to our brother, it was duly noted that you took this text to a new level. We acknowledge your spirit of perseverance and demonstrated resiliency.

Even though we were unable to make the trip to be with you today, please be consoled by the fact that our spirit, thoughts and prayers are with you.

We love you very much.

May the Good Lord prepare us to receive his blessings at this time as he grants us comfort....Amen###imported-begin###Madona Cole-Lacy & James Lacy###imported-end##
