

Keith Kirby

January 17, 1962 - February 3, 2024

KIRBY - Keith Kirby, age 62 of Lawrenceville, GA, passed away on Saturday, February 3, 2024. A Funeral Service will be held at 3:00 PM on Saturday, February 10, 2024 in the Lawrenceville Chapel of Tim Stewart Funeral Home with Pastor Nick Kolb officiating. The family will receive friends from 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM prior to the service. Keith, the fat cowboy, graduated from Shamrock High School in Decatur, and loved being outdoors and riding his horses. He believed his sons hung the moon and were his life's best work. He loved his Pam Baby. Keith was preceded in death by his father, Bruce Gamewell Kirby. He is survived by his loving wife of 40 years, Pamela Price Kirby of Lawrenceville, GA; sons & daughters-in-law, Adam Keith (Emily) Kirby of Myrtle Beach, SC; Travis Gamewell (Jessica) Kirby of Loris, SC; mother, Janice Maltba Johnson of Lawrenceville, GA; grandson, Judah Augustus Kirby; brother & sister-in-law, Mike (Angela) Kirby, Jim (Sis) Smith, Michelle St Arnold all of NC, several nieces and nephews, and an enormous amount of friends who were like family. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, <https://give.choa.org>. Arrangements by Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road SW, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30046. 770.962.3100. Please sign the online guest registry at www.stewartfh.com.

“ Can't believe he's gone, Keith was one of the few cousins i ever felt close to. My heart is sad. I remember when he met Pam you could see the love in his eyes from the word go. Ya just knew they were forever. I guess I never knew of a time he wasn't on or around his 2nd love, his horse's. I'm gonna miss you cuz.

“ How I met the one and only extraordinary Cowboy Keith Kirby

When I moved to Lilburn, away from the horses I grew up with. I would drive by Keith's and Pam's house everyday on the way to work/college.

On February 19, 2012, I felt spontaneous and literally knocked on a strangers door.

Next thing I knew I was grooming and working horses for Keith Kirby. From that day forward we have shared many memories. Keith was always with us. Whether we were in the shop working on mudbog trucks, or in the backyard working and breaking horses. There's not many real cowboys left in this world. Keith Kirby was one of them. Never a dull moment "They broke the mold when they made him".

Keith always said "My Life's Work" referring to his extraordinary family. I am beyond blessed that I got the chance to witness and be apart of Keith Kirby's "Life's Work".

"Oh the last goodbyes the hardest one to say and this is where the cowboy rides away."

To my childhood cowboy...days spent climbing in the old barn pretending to fight outlaws and Indians...I remember the pony you had that bit me in the behind—I thought I was going to die...and the time that we were trying to save some baby critter and I sat the pot of warm milk down and it seared a circle in the flooring...and that scary time a horse kicked you and left hoof prints on your side...then you moved away and the childhood cowboy became the adult cowboy...with a beautiful cowboy family. Suddenly, too soon, that childhood friend and cowboy becomes a memory and I wonder, "Where do cowboys go when they die? Is there a place in the sweet bye-and-bye?"
