“ Dear Suzan and Family:

God has blessed many with Keith's presence on this earth. His memories will keep your hearts warm and strengthen and encourage you to live a life of goodness.

My prayers are with you and the family, as God has called Keith to his heavenly home - his mansion was ready and now he is where there is eternally joy and peace.

God is with you.

With deepest sympathy,

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Hallam family. Though I never met Keith in person, I knew of him through my brother, Billy. Keith was a kind and caring man. He fought such a brave battle. I know he will be missed greatly by his family, friends and co workers. My parents and I join in offering our deepest sympathy and continued prayers.##imported-begin##Elaine Tengelsen##imported-end##
