“ Ken was such a good, Christian man (just like his precious Father and Mother). He was always so kind and friendly to everyone. I knew him and Mary when we all first got married and had our children. Shannon and my daughter, Debbie, were best friends in Elementary and Middle School. I remember Mary would bring Shannon over to our house and let her stay with Debbie and they would just play their little hearts out. We all had such a wonderful time together sharing time with our children and each other. Mary, mine and Debbie's hearts go out to you and we are praying for you and your family and for his precious sisters (Linda, Gwen, and Phyllis) and his precious brother (Danny). We pray that God will give you all comfort and strength to get through this time of your lives. Please know that we love you all so much. I am so sorry I couldn't come but my health is so poor that just can't make it. Hopefully I am going to Emory this week to see what all is going on.
