Kendall had a very caring heart. He stood up and spoke positive regarding me when others didn't. He was the first black Republican I ever met 😊 and we always respected and enjoyed our differences and debates. His level of intellect was outstanding and his opinion and input was welcomed and embraced. He'll be missed. Condolences to his family and friends... 🙏

“ Kendall,

I met you as a little boy back in Trinidad. When you migrated with your parents, your father always talked about how proud he was of you and your brother. Through the years, I've heard about your achievements. You grew up to be an outstanding citizen. You will be missed by all your family and friends.

Sleep peacefully, nephew 🕊

“ Kendall will truly be missed. We haven't seen each other in years. However, when we did get a chance to catch up it was like no time had passed. I'm sad that we didn't get one more time to talk. I'm praying for the entire family. Rest easy my friend.

“ Kendall James was my father, and I loved him very much. Not long before he passed, I remember telling him about my dream of becoming a circus clown. He didn't laugh or discourage me, he only asked, "Do you know any good tricks?" In all honesty, I did not. But, still, I showed him how to take a dollar and fold it, unfold it, and make Washington stand on his head. He didn't seem very impressed. But in some way, he still made me want to perform, and live my dream. My dad always supported me, sometimes he was tough but he was always fair. His obituary reminded me that my father was not even yet 50 years old. I'm so sorry, dad. I was scared out of my mind watching how sick you were, but you were so strong. Thank you for that. You'll be very missed.

“ A few years ago I was at a track meet in NC and saw Jason. He said oh Kendall is over there in the stands. I ran down and yelled as I hugged him. I had not seen him since High School. He had that same beautiful smile and great energy. We sat in the stands with the sun beating down on us kind of like we did back in the day. He called a few of the guys from the team while we were sitting there. It was definitely the highlight of my trip. I'm so glad we had that moment to catch up.

“ My first memory of Kendall is him asking me, an incoming freshman, in front of the entire track team why i wore my socks so high. I was so embarrassed. I didn't know how high i wore my socks was not cool. But he immediately fixed my socks and introduced me to the rest of the team. Always ready to make you laugh and ferociously protective of his friends. He was one of my favorite teammates and friends. I was looking forward to catching up at one of the track get togethers. He will be missed.
