“ *Everyone knows how much Ken missed Annie. They are together at last. We shall miss them, mourn them, grieve with their family but each of us has taken a small part of the two of them into our hearts thru memories and stories we all could tell. Raise a beer for Ken but don't tell Annie! God has two more angels sitting high on the clouds watching us all. Till we meet again my friend keep it in the middle of the road. Be seeing you both if we are lucky for that big, beautiful God loving reunion in the sky.
Hugs to all that'stuff left here.

“ I Remember going out to meet Ken and Ann for the first time, goodness has to be 25 years ago. They lived in a mobile home in Loganville. So proud of their home and the landscaping around, gorgeous place. Then they bought an RV and started to travel. The best memory I have is the sheer love they had for each other, Ken adored Ann and Ann loved Ken with all her heart. I'm so glad they are back together again. Cindy Phillips, State Farm Agent.
