“ Although for only a few short years I feel so blessed to of had you as my Father in Law, I will miss all the family gatherings and our front porch chats. You were a dear Sweet man Ken Brown and will truly be deeply missed. I salute you Sir for your service to our country and for all the blessings you bestowed on the family. I will miss sharing some of the pecans you loved to shell and even watching the races... Thank you for everything... Love you , Donna Sutton..... My deepest condolences to Jan and your children and grandchildren.

I will always remember your smile, Ken, and the comfort & fun shared with Jan and you on every visit I made to your home. I will miss you and the long conversations over the phone. I am so grateful to have shared your 75th birthday and the opportunity to meet the family who amazed you with the big birthday surprise party. Sorry I lived so far away. My condolences to all the family members left behind while they walk in your footsteps.
