“ I can't begin to say what Kenny Love and his family mean to me. Through many adverse times they always held their heads high and continued on the journey God had planned for them. They never knew what tomorrow would hold but they knew who held tomorrow. Kenny was strong in his faith and shared this faith with his family and each one made the choice of following the Lord. He will be missed but we will continue to see him and think of him when we see his loved ones. I found this poem and I can just imagine Kenny saying this to his family.

*When I Must Leave You, By, Helen Steiner Rice
by MaryGrace Patterson*

For all who have lost loved ones along lifes way.. This is one of my favorite poems by Helen.

*When I must leave you
for a little while Please do not grieve
and shed wild tears
and hug your sorrow
to you through the years*

*Start out bravely
with a gallant smile
and for my sake
and in my name,
live on and do
all things the same*

*Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
but fill each waking hour in useful ways*

*Reach out your hand
in comfort and cheer,
and I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near*

*Never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky*

“ Sarah, we are so sorry for your loss. We just learned this evening of Kenny's passing - too late to be at the funeral. We are sorry we missed it. You and your entire family will be in our prayers. God bless.##imported-begin##Connie & Lloyd Looney##imported-end##

“ Dear Sarah and Family, Hearing of Nubern and Willie Mae's death and now Kenny's brought sadness.

The years have quickly passed since serving as pastor in Doraville, Ga. We treasure the wonderful memories made while there and the Love Family is among them. Their smiles and good humor comes to mind.

Sorry, we didn't know Kenny had been ill. Be assured of our prayers for you. May the abiding peace as only the Lord can prove be yours in the days ahead. In His LOVE !!
