Yvonne spent her life raising her children, and eventually her grandchildren as well. She was proud of her family in everything they did. She loved cooking, but most of all baking- especially a good pound cake for grandkids, or a pink cake for her kids

She lived her life devoted to God. She enjoyed going to church and reading her Bible. She was a faithful member of Luxomoni Baptist Church since the early 70s.

When she was young she enjoyed skating and dancing. As she was older she enjoyed telling stories about her younger days.

She will be remembered for all the wonderful memories and good laughs we shared. She will be deeply missed by all.
