“ Losing my dad was the hardest thing I’ve ever had to experience. He was a great guy. He didn’t always make the best choices, but he loved me, his only child and his 2 grandchildren very much. His life was so much more than wedding photos of a 2 year marriage. His life was full of adventure, travel, laughter and love. He loved fishing, playing golf, barbecuing and hiking. He loved his dogs, Sam and scout. He is so missed and I still can’t believe he is gone. ”

“ I only met you once. It was at your grandson's birthday party. You seemed so happy and didn't stop smiling once. Your smile told what kind of person you are. I am so glad I met you. My prayers and thoughts are with your family at this most difficult time. ”

10 years later, it's still stings. Kevin's life was so much more than a woman he met online, yeah, here are all the pictures of their wedding and nothing celebrating his amazing life. We made a beautiful slideshow, showcasing his life with his dogs, his family, and all the wonderful things he love to do like hiking and fishing and bowling. Unfortunately, the woman in his life was very selfish and made everything all about her and was unable to find it in her heart to celebrate his life with his own family and his only daughter. He goes so much deeper than that and she was very sinister and did a lot of very terrible and unethical things. God knows what she did and can see it all.
