“ To Ryan.....We knew you dad almost 40 years ago and he was genuinely about the finest man that we know over our lifetime. We had so much fun with him and your mom and had a super time at the cottage. I remember your father quitting smoking and not quite losing the desire and one day on the boat with your grandfather I think, he went for the smoke and threw up and lost the desire. Phil and I were older with 3 children and leading the way in life (also learning much about life) and then came you! You were so loved.....the memories are still with us. By all accounts, it seems that you now have the mantle of one of the finest men on earth?
