

Kevin James Menadue

November 3, 1963 - April 11, 2021

Kevin James Menadue an avid NASCAR and Football fan, son, devoted husband, father, brother, brother in law and uncle, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, April 11th, 2021.

Kevin Menadue was born November 3, 1963 in Dubuque, Iowa. From an early age he was strong-willed and ready to take on his life full-throttle. After graduation he embarked on a life journey heading to Texas. Little did he know he would meet his future wife there, Natalie, and they would marry just one year later - a true love story – love at first site! With this marriage began his legacy with the eventual birth of his two handsome boys Kevin and Michael. He was an amazing father, a stay-at-home dad, teaching his boys the proper way to handle guns, and sharing his passion of skeet shooting, camping, hiking, boating and family vacations which often included trips to Talladega inviting anyone else who wanted to join-in.

Another passion of Kevin's was cooking, honing his natural skill with additional education, he became a successful sous-chef and then eventually went on to own his own food-truck business. Being invited for dinner was a special treat, you prepared for it much like a Thanksgiving meal often being served as a king with his huge pork slabs, roasts and perfectly grilled steaks.

Kevin was passionate but simple, sarcastic but thoughtful, generous and quietly funny. He lived each day to the fullest and never would sweat the small stuff. Kevin knew each day was a gift and to live like there was no tomorrow. This was especially true with his personal fight against cancer in his last few years. He fought for his life with honor, never once asking 'why me' or taking a moment to feel sorry for himself. Once during one of his many hospital visits – he was asked how he remains so strong mentally and he responded assuredly... "I am in God's hands and I trust that".

Kevin released his fight to the Lord at his home in Auburn, Georgia surrounded by his close family. He is survived by his parents, Jim Menadue and Joyce Morgan; loving wife Natalie Menadue; sons, Kevin Menadue II and Michael Menadue; brothers, Jay Menadue, Chad Pliester and Pat Menadue; sisters, Chris Menadue and Debbie Morgan and many nieces and nephews of whom he played a role in many of their lives.

In Kevin's own words 'He is now in God's hands and we must trust that'.

A Celebration of Life for Kevin Menadue include a Visitation at Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road SW, Lawrenceville, GA 30046 on Thursday, April 15 from 1pm-2pm, a memorial service will follow starting at 2pm.

“ Dear Natalie,

Having just learned of Kevin’s passing, I wanted to reach out to you and extend my heartfelt condolences – to you and your sons.

I know that no matter how prepared you are for the loss of a loved one, it still comes as a shock. And - it hurts deeply!

I cannot imagine the pain you must be feeling right now; nor do I have any truly appropriate words to convey to you. Please just know that I care about you and that you are in my prayers. GOD Bless you, Natalie.

With deepest Sympathy,

“ Kevin was such a caring brother-in-law to me. He was always right there for everyone. Most especially after my son, Hunter passed, Kevin texted or called me every single week for two years to check on me. All this while he was himself going through his fight with cancer. He was the most selfless person and I will never forget all he did for me and our family. We will miss him deeply. Rest in Gods hands now, Kevin.

“ *As the manly-man Kevin was, he sure did love the little folks in our family... I remember how he ALWAYS held his boys, didn't seem to want to ever put them down... Same with the other babies that came along in our family...
We miss you deeply!*
